

Galerie BRAUBACHfive TIME OUT London / Januar 2013

FUN FAIR

In the wake of the Frieze Art Fair, the annual London Art Fair has been obliged to up its game in recent years. As the fair celebrates its twenty-fifth incarnation we pick six highlights from Art Projects, its innovative emerging artists section.

THEIR SOCIETY
ALISA 'Sublet'

Democratizing community spirit, the ARS&L Ed Initiative Support Network is sharing its booth with other artist-run projects, such as London Island and Variation Gallery.

CHOOSE ME!
Linoiseville 'Take Me Out'

There's a speed-dating dynamic to Linoiseville's show of works by 20 female artists displayed opposite works by 20 male artists. New pieces immediately replace those sold.

CHANGING SPACES
Samara Scott/The Sunday Painter

This solo presentation takes the form of an interior set, created by artist Samara Scott whose sculpture mix of objects and materials incorporates paint, pottery, pebbles, and gold leaf.

EURO-BUDDIES
Charlie Smith, BraubachFive

In the spirit of bolstering Anglo-German relations, London's Charlie Smith Gallery is pairing up with Frankfurt-based space BraubachFive for a trans-European, cross-fertilisation of art.

Opening this week

Jerwood Space 173 Old Oak Lane, www.jerwoodspace.com
Tomorrow Never Knows Artists Ed Adams and Paolo showcase their new works as recipients of the Jerome and Volo Lombroso Award
Lethaby Gallery Central Martins, Granary Building 3 Granary Square, N1C
Future Map 2012 This selection of graduates from colleges that make up the of the Arts London returns this year, with work by and designers. 1st Jan-28th

THE PHOTOGRAPHY GALLERY
PERSPECTIVE ON COLLAGE
LAURENCE GERALDU DE

EURO-BUDDIES
Charlie Smith/BraubachFive
 In the spirit of bolstering Anglo-German relations, London's Charlie Smith Gallery is pairing up with Frankfurt-based space BraubachFive for a trans-European, cross-fertilisation of art.